Q: Low volume with Blu-Ray player When using this with my LG LED tv, I have to turn the volume on the tv up to almost 100 to get enough sound..... with my cable when I have it around 30-40 its very loud and easy to hear. There are times when watching a DVD when I have it up to full volume (100) and its still not THAT loud. Is there a setting I am missing within the Blu-ray player?
