The Execution of Jonathan Wild, Thief-Taker General. Jonathan Wild (Wolverhampton, England, 1682/3 - London, England, 24th May 1725) Our notorious guest today is a man whom we have met before, a supporting player in the tale I told last year of Joseph "Blueskin" Blake. Today though, on the anniversary of his execution, the stage belongs squarely to Jonathan Wild, the man known throughout England as the unflinching Thief-Taker General.
